THE FAA RELEASE

AUGUST 2016

PRSRT STD

FT. MYERS, FL
PERMIT NO. 569

Florida had a great turnout at the NFAA Outdoor Nationals in Darrington. We had nine shooters and took home 5 silver and 2 bronze. Not a bad showing for a shoot so far away.

The 2017 National Senior Games are being hosted close by in Birmingham, Alabama. If you want to shoot you must qualify this year. The last chance in the nation is the Florida Senior Games which is being hosted in Clearwater on December 3 and is open to Florida and non-Florida archers. Go to <http://www.flasports.com/florida-senior-games/> to register.

The following offices are up for election Central VP, NW VP and NAA Representative. Please let Tim know if you would like to run. Ballots will be in the December Release.

The 2017 Schedule is in the Release. It was nice to see Sarasota bid to host a shoot. They have a wonderful range and are hosting the International in April.

I am flying to Australia to shoot in the IFAA World Field in late September. Since it was such a long (and expensive flight, I am also take the opportunity to visit Thailand and New Zealand on the way. While in Thailand I am visiting an elephant sanctuary where I will learn to be a mahout.

See you on the range. Oliver.

YOU CAN REGISTER AND PAY ONLINE FOR ALL FAA SHOOTS

Save yourself some time and pay online.
