PASSING ON

William P. Birt 3/25/1929 -10/16/2011

It's my sad duty to inform everyone that we have lost our friend Bill Birt today. Bill was a life member of FAA and NFAA and has been State Champion many times as a Freestyle Archer... in more recent years he was Senior Male Champion 92TGT, 93IND, 93INT, 95INT, 95TGT, 96IND and 96SEI... and while we had an Executive Senior Division, 01FLD and 02FLD. Bill had a heart condition and had to have bypass surgery years ago... he got up from bed, came out to shoot, and immediately shot some of the highest scores he had ever shot. Bill's last registration was the 2003 Senior Games where he was unable to compete and was a no-show.

William P. Birt received the FAA Dillard Bucklen Award in 1993. He had the perfect pin for Field Bars (1991), the perfect pin for International Bars (1990), 40-50-60 yard 6 Gold pins, the FAA Big Game Award, the Perfect Animal Pin, and the NFAA Robin Hood Award. A skilled hunter, he could read sign and was comfortable in the woods. A professional Bee Keeper, he traveled South to take his bees to the farms and processed the honey at his home. Several of my friends have worked with him and when I had bees making a home in my house, Bill came out with a hive and a queen and drew the bees out of my house into the hive. For two years I had an active hive just outside one of the windows in my dining room... and then there was the time we went to work the hive and Bill laughed and laughed when I came off the ladder with my pants flying off because there was a bee in there

I shall greatly miss my friend Bill. He left us at age 82 after a struggle with health problems. His wife Cathy Birt, also a life member of FAA and NFAA, can be reached at 2611 N W 48th Place, Gainesville FL 32605-1288. Phone 352-373-4697. Email csew@aol.com

Billy Adams 5/14/1933-11/18/2011

We have lost one of our most friendly, hard working, and generous members. Billy Adams was a life member of FAA and NFAA and he left us at age 81, but he will stay with us in all that we do. Billy was a member of Central Florida Archers and Ridge Archers and an honorary member of Gator Bowmen. A lifetime hunter and dedicated supporter of archers and their ranges, Billy was responsible for supplying backstopping for our target butts and building picnic tables and trailers that are still in use at various clubs. When Gator Bowmen moved across town and built a new range, Billy came on his own to bring us tables and a trailer to use on our range. He donated his time, his skill, and his assets to make our sport available and functional. He lived in Lakeland, and he was always a willing worker whenever something needed to be done.

Billy Adams receiving the Dillard Bucklen Award for Special Achievement in 2008 from FAA Secretary/Treasury Tim Austin

Death of an FAA/Daytona Archers member

David Horbert passed away this week. He was diagnosed with a malignant tumor on his brain stem, had it 90% removed and was starting chemo and radiation. He leaves a loving wife who is an FAA member, 2 daughters and Ben, his 15 year old son who is also an FAA member.

Southeast Indoor March 9 – 11 2012

Due to multiple sites for the Southeast Indoor, we could not move the Newberry Indoor away from 9-11 March which also happens to be the dates for Gator Nationals. We do have a reduced rate at one hotel as long as rooms are not sold out... so those interested in coming to the Gainesville/Newberry site and needing a motel room need to make reservations at the earliest possible time.

The Gainesville Hotel and Conference Center at Newberry Road and SW 75th St in Gainesville has an archery rate of $89 that weekend (normal rate for Gator Nationals weekend is $159). Those wishing to stay there need to make reservations early because the town really does get sold out that weekend.
